

Ch. 3 : The Humanist Approach

- In what ways can shifts in ideas affect a society's worldview?

Classical Civilizations : Greece + Rome

↳ writing styles ↳ society

↳ Politics ↳ history ↳ art

* Humanist Beliefs about the individual
↳ specifically, peoples value

Changes to : Education , Art → Erasmus

Challenges : Religion * still very important

Ch. 4: The Exchange of Ideas

- How did the Renaissance spark the growth and exchange of ideas across Europe
- Scientific Method
- Astronomy : Copernicus, Kepler, Galileo
- Medicine * Da Vinci *
- Anatomy : dissections
- Exchange of Math ideas between cultures

Political Leaders

↳ Isabella D'Este ↳ Machiavelli : ↳ Savonarola
↳ Martin Luther → Protestant Reformation

Spread of Ideas

- Universities
- Travelling Celebrities
- Royal Court
- * Printing Press

Ch. 5: The Age of Exploration

- What factors might motivate a society to venture into unknown regions?

1. Expand Trade    2. Gold Supply    3. Christianity

Because...

• Expanded known world    • Technology

Expansionism + Race to "new world"

Ch. 6 : O Brave New World

- How can exploration + expansionism affect the worldview of their + others society's?

• Imperialism    • Terrible Actions . Cultural Contact